Twisters Wreck Farms

No Injuries Are Reported

Lincoln Star Special

PILGER, Neb.—At least three farms and a schoolhouse were seriously damaged Thursday night when a tornado cut a swath, estimated by the State Safety Patrol to be four miles long, northeast of here.

The Associated Press reported three farms and a schoolhouse near Pilger were hit and also a farm 5 1/2 miles southeast of Wayne, but this could not be immediately confirmed.

Later reports were that a twister hit six farms five miles south and one half mile east of Wayne, knocking down farm buildings, but leaving the farm homes standing.

No one was reported injured. The farms identified as being hit were those of Eldon Stewart, Rudolph Kai, Mel Kai, August Kai and Ted Kai. The tornado hit this area about 8 p.m., according to reports.

There was also a report of a twister in the area 10 miles south and one west of Wakefield, approximately the same point as the Wayne twister, followed by heavy rain that made roads impassable. The report also listed no injured.

Mrs. Ed Anderson, wife of the Pilger marshal, told The Star that the farm homes of Mrs. Frank Glover, 3 miles north and a half mile east of Pilger, and Gus Gemelge, located just northeast of the Glover farm, were struck.

According to Mrs. Anderson, the Glover home was "moved from its foundation" and "everything was wrecked" on the Gemelge farm.

There was no report of any one being injured.

Mrs. Glover, a widow, lives on the farm with her six children and her mother, Mrs. Gemelge. Whether or not she was related to the Gus Gemelge was not immediately known.

Water Spreads Over Countryside After Downpour

These waters from the Nemaha River in the Salem-Falls City area spill over the river banks and across surrounding countryside Thursday after heavy downpours in the area. Latest information indicates the crest has passed and the water began to recede in this and

Six Roads Blocked

Six state highways are closed as the results of floods, the State Highway Department reported late Thursday. These are:

- No. 41 east of Adams
- No. 66 west of Hordville
- No. 76 at Gresham and south of Waco
- No. 3 west of Tecumseh and east of Auburn
- No. 99 south of Pawnee City
- No. 4 from Falls City to Rulo (closed to passenger traffic only.)

The heavy rains caused flooding in several southeast Nebraska areas (story on Page 11) and also caused some flooding in Lancaster County (Story on Page 2).

29 Billion OK'd For Defense

Demo Attempt To Halt Army Outback Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate approved a military budget of more than 29 billion dollars Thursday for the defense of the country in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Passage came on a voice vote after a Democratic attempt to add 350 million dollars and prevent a planned cutback of two divisions in the Army was defeated 50-38.

Nebraska Senators Bowring and Butler, both Republicans, voted with the 50-38 majority.

The bill carries about half a billion dollars more than the version passed by the House April 29. But it is still below President Eisenhower's recommendations and more than five billion dollars less than Congress voted for defense last year.

Democratic senators attacked the pared-down budget as inadequate and "a desperate gamble" during the two days of debate.

"Long Haul"

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.), speaking for the GOP leadership, contended it provides "the greatest protection possible" in a balanced economy and is suited to the administration's "long haul" defense program. He also said it would be supplemented by about 14 1/2 billion dollars in unobligated money carried over from appropriations in previous years.

The measure, biggest of all the annual money bills, now goes back to the House for consideration of numerous changes made by the Senate.

Shortage Of Housing Here By September Predicted

AF Officer Says Lincoln Air Base Buildup Creates Critical Situation

By MARILEN K. SWANSON
Star Staff Writer

Lincoln will face a critical housing shortage by the time school starts in September.

That serious prediction was made by a man familiar with housing shortages all over the nation—Col. Hal McChord, chief of the housing division of the U.S. Air Force with headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Col. McChord was in Lincoln Thursday to confer with Col. Erwin Wursten, Lincoln Air Force Base commander, and Ira D. Beynon, former director of real property for the Defense Department, on Air Force personnel housing needs here.

Although the final numerical strength of the Lincoln Air Force Base is classified information, Col. McChord said base personnel and their families will constitute "a good sized community."

He added that base personnel will require a total of 1,900 housing units in Lincoln.

Previous estimates of the size of the base place the personnel figure at from 6,000 to 7,000 men. The Lincoln base will support an air division.

25,000 Units

The Defense Department has recently asked Congress to pass legislation which would give the department authority to build 25,000 housing units on military installations at a total cost of about $350 million. Under the plan, if passed by Congress, 600 housing units—costing about $8,500,000—would be constructed on the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Explaining the Defense Department's request, Col. McChord said that a critical housing situation exists all over the nation and new bases are opening, some of which are in "reasonably isolated areas."

Under the Strategic Air Command policy of immediate relocation if this country is ever attacked, Col. McChord says this necessitates "key men on the team" being immediately on call.

"No one can foretell what hour of the day or night an attack may come and we must be ready at any time for any emergency," he stated, "and this means our key men must be on the base."

Another aspect of on-base housing involves the re-enlistment of Air Force personnel.

"We can't attract or keep technicians, who are trained by the Air Force at tremendous cost, if those persons cannot find adequate housing," he stated.

The colonel added that for every one per cent of the Air Force who re-enlists at the end of the enlistment contract, the Air Force saves $20,500,000, or what it would cost to train another group of new enlistees.

Airman Group

Col. McChord said the greatest need for housing exists in the Airman group, which group has a limited budget. "They must have decent quarters within a reasonable distance from the base and within their economic ability to pay," he added.

On-base housing will be used, if

Solon-Judge Asks Ouster Of Top Army And Committee Employees

... Record Going To Justice Department For Possible Perjury Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The McCarthy-Army hearings passed into history Thursday night with a key Republican senator hurling a vote of guilty at both sides and calling for the ouster of "those employees who have played top roles" for the Army and the McCarthy side alike.

Sen. Charles E. Potter, of Michigan, dropped this final bombshell as the curtain rang down and the television cameras switched off at 6:32 p.m. E.D.T. (4:32 p.m., CST) to end the most publicized inquiry and climax of the bitter political dramas the United States has ever known.

Potter, a legless veteran of World War II, handed out a statement blasting both Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Secretary of the Army Stevens while the public hearings were ending in a bittersweet welter of harmony appeals and ominous foreshadowing of new conflicts to come.

"There is little doubt," Potter said, "that the testimony of witnesses on both sides was saturated with statements which were not truthful..."

"I believe a criminal case against some of the principals might be developed if the case were taken to a Grand Jury room to be repeated without others being present."

TWO MILLION WORDS

The record of this unprecedented hearing—well over two million words of testimony and exhibits—already is going to the Justice Department for possible perjury proceedings.

The Senate investigations Subcommittee itself must pass on the immediate issues—whether McCarthy and his aids brought improper pressure on behalf of Pvt. G. David Schine, and whether the Army side tried to "Blackmail" McCarthy out of probing its ranks for alleged subversives.

Potter cast his totally unexpected vote at once.

"I am convinced," he said, "that the principal accusation of each side in this controversy was borne out by testimony."

Of the McCarthy side, he said, without naming names: "Since the subcommittee staff was investigating a very serious condition which was alleged to have existed in the Army, there never should have been at any time any conversation about a commission or the military status of one of its members (Schine) by anyone but the person concerned."

Blames Top Executives

And the Michigan senator went on to say: "Top executives of the Army should never have encouraged this sort of thing and should have put an end to the discussions for their own protection and in order to avoid what occurred later."

He added: "I shall propose dismissal of those employees who have played top roles on both sides." That would certainly mean Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel to the McCarthy investigations subcommittee, and John G. Adams, counselor to the Army.

The GOP majority on the committee has voted to clear another McCarthy aide, Francis P. Carr, of the improper pressure charges.

Also cleared at the same time, of charges brought by the McCarthy side, was H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary of defense.

At Sen. Potter's office later, an administrative aid said Potter would have specific suggestions to make about job "separations" at the next closed-door meeting of the subcommittee. This has been set for Friday.

Until then, it was stated, Potter would say nothing about the individuals he had in mind.

Missed by TV Watchers

Potter's dramatic announcement—which TV watchers missed since he didn't deliver it personally while senators and other participants were delivering their curtain speeches—completely overshadowed a rush of other 11th hour developments:

1. Stevens sent word that the only advice he ever got from Clark Clifford, one-time adviser to President Truman, was that he should delay an appearance before the McCarthy Subcommittee until Sen. Symington (D-Mo) returned from Europe. McCarthy has been picturing Clifford as a probable master mind behind the Army "improper pressure" charges which brought the present row to a boil. Stevens' statement was that the one bit of advice he got from Clifford he decided to disregard.

2. Joseph N. Welch, the Army's chief special counsel, tried to the last to show that a series of 11 McCarthy side memos were cooked up at the last minute. McCarthy contended to the end of a line-by-line cross-examination, however, that the memos were just what they purported to be—a chronological record of alleged attempts by Army officials to block an investigation at Ft. Monmouth, N.J., and to use Schine as a "hostage."

3. McCarthy testified the next project for his subcommittee will be an investigation of American citizens still in Communist prison camps. But he said he has urgent plans for other investigations—including an all-out attempt to force testimony from Loyalty Board members of the Truman era. It was on this issue, in the

Ft. Monmouth investigation, that he clashed head-on with the Army and to a considerable extent with the whole Eisenhower administration.

Welch, the 63-year-old Boston lawyer who became a national figure in this investigation, wound up his cross-examination of McCarthy at 5:28 p.m. (EDT)—with the "magic words," as he described them: "I rest."

With that, it was all over but the valedictory speeches—and the bombshell statement by Potter.

Marciano Retains Title

Rocky Marciano, after falling behind early in the fight, rallied savagely to retain his world heavyweight boxing championship by a unanimous decision over Ezzard Charles in 15 rounds at New York's Yankee Stadium Thursday night.

Marciano was a busy favorite but the aggressive Charles was in command until the fifth round when the champion found the range. Marciano continued to maul Charles after that.

There were no knockdowns but each fighter was bleeding freely at the finish. Marciano weighed 187 1/2, Charles 185 1/2.

France Has New Premier

Mendes-France Will Quit Unless He Gets Indo Peace In Month

PARIS (Friday) (AP)—Pierre Mendes-France, who promised to get peace in Indo-China in a month or resign, was confirmed as premier by the National Assembly early today by a thumping vote of 419 to 47. But 154 deputies abstained.

The 47-year old Radical Socialist (moderate) also pledged a new effort to compromise the deadlock—Mendes-France led European Defense Community (EDC) pact which would rearm Germany.

Mendes-France rolled up enough votes for confirmation—314 even without the 99 Communists who voted for him.

In turning down Communist support, Mendes-France asked: "What would be the sentiments of our soldiers if they knew our country was governed by men designated by the party which has disavowed their combat?"

He said reliance on the Communists in making up the majority would have been a handicap in negotiating at the Geneva conference for peace in Indo-China. If settlement could be reached there, he said, "we do not want any doubt on the conditions of this accord."

Mendes-France, a persuasive orator who began his political career when he was elected to the Assembly at 25, becomes France's 14th premier in the 10 years since liberation and head of the nation's 20th cabinet.

New Move To Strip
McCarthy Of Senate
Chairmanships Fails

WASHINGTON (INS)—Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-NY) asked the Senate Thursday to revoke Sen. McCarthy's committee chairmanships and on the insistence of GOP Leader Knowland his motion was sent to committee.

Lehman presented his resolution attacking the Wisconsin Republican for alleged "abuses" and "violations" of his committee power and asked that it lie upon the table until such time as he would call it up with further explanation.

Knowland was on his feet immediately and asked the chair, occupied by Vice President Nixon, if under the rules Lehman did not need "unanimous consent" to hold his resolution on the table without going to committee.

Nixon, who had conferred with his fellow Californian a little earlier and apparently was in the chair by pre-arrangement, ruled that Lehman's resolution could remain on the table only with the consent of all senators. He asked Lehman if he wished to ask for such unanimous consent.

With McCarthy looking on from a standing position near the front of the chamber, Lehman reluctantly asked for such consent and Knowland just as promptly objected. Knowland's objection meant that the resolution automatically was referred to the Senate Rules Committee.

McCarthy told newsmen he would "have no comment" on the Lehman resolution.

Two-Day Lapse
Lehman's move came just two days after the senate had referred a similar motion against the Wisconsin Republican to the Senate Rules committee, with agreement of its sponsor, Sen. Flanders.

Lehman stressed he did not wish his move confused with the pending Army-McCarthy inquiry and the charges involved there because he was basing his motion upon many issue which, he stated, "have not been touched in this inquiry at all."

Ducklings Arrive,
Cigars Passed,
Building Begins

SEAFORD, N.Y. (P)—Home-builder Louis Hirsch passed out cigars Thursday in celebration of the hatching of five little ducklings—an event which meant he could now go back to work.

He said he plans to have a bulldozer and crew back on the job Monday, resuming a ground-clearing job that for 25 days has been held up to permit a nesting wild mallard duck to hatch her brood.

Hirsch said he figures the delay in the construction job, involving the erection of 49 new homes, has cost him about $6,000. "It was worth it, though," he said.

Hillary Returns
CALCUTTA, India (P)—Everest conqueror Sir Edmund Hillary, last month was reported stricken with pneumonia on a remote Himalayan glacier, returned to civilization here. He appeared hale and hearty. With him was James MacFarlane, a fellow-New Zealander whose life Hillary saved when he fell down a 60-foot crevasse in the Baran Glacier.

Snow Closes Road
KALISPELL, Mont. (INS)—A blizzard sent two feet of fresh snow swirling into the air Thursday over Logan Pass in Glacier National Park to close the Going-to-the-Sun Highway. Park Supt. J. W. Emmert said visibility in the area was reduced to zero.

It Happened In NEBRASKA...

As early as 1700, French fur traders traveling the Missouri River by canoe frequently landed along Nebraska's eastern "shores." These adventure-hardened traders soon discovered that Nebraska's "cities of gold" were only the myths of so-called early explorers who actually had never seen this region.

One story you can't discount these days is that Nebraska's tavern industry, by operating clean, well-regulated business establishments, has earned the growing respect accorded it.

Modernization, Improvements
Slated For School At Cheney

Lincoln Star Special
CHENEY, Neb.—The old white school house on the hill in Cheney can look forward to busier and better days ahead.

Plans are under way to modernize the frame structure with installation of rest rooms, modern plumbing and general fixing up. In addition, the teaching staff will be increased from one to two to take care of increased enrollment in the school year ahead.

The changes had their beginning with decision of school patrons of this part of Lancaster County to merge Districts 115 and 104 with the Cheney district 84. The new, enlarged district is now No. 153. Richard Cummings, treasurer of the district, said the cost of the school renovation is expected to total $4,500.

In a recent meeting of the district, patrons approved the changes but voted down a proposal for providing school bus service. Most of the pupils, however, live near the Cheney school.

The districts were merged by the petition method in April. This step more than doubled the valuation of the Cheney district and is expected to make possible low mill levies. A part of the taxes go to a state high school levy since Cheney provides eight-grade instruction only.

Cummings said beginning pupils will constitute 30 per cent of the enrollment when classes open in the fall. Enrollment last year was 22, but the merger is expected to swell this figure to between 30 and 35. About a dozen of these are beginners. The present Cheney teacher is Miss Anna Krause. The second teacher has not yet been chosen.

The Cheney school, about 40 years old, has five rooms. It was formerly used for a high school as well as grade school. Officers of the Cheney District, besides Cummings, are Robert Hunt, secretary and Fred Schluttenbusch, president.

Salt Creek Level Falls Rapidly
After Crest Caused By Rains

By VIRGIL FALLOON

Swollen streams from early Thursday morning's heavy rains went over some roads in south-east Lancaster County, but no flood danger to Lincoln resulted. County Engineer Louis Weaver said water went over roads at Hickman, Saltville and Roca. "There will probably be high water for the next 24 hours, but there's no flood danger at Lincoln," he said.

The Sanitary District's disposal plant reported Salt Creek crested at just over 12 feet and had dropped to 6.6 feet at midnight. Flood danger stage is measured at 20 feet.

Salt Creek through Roca hit a high tide Thursday afternoon of 19.5 feet with practically no flooding and none expected unless more rain fell. Flood stage at Roca on Salt is 22 feet.

Park Closed
The Pioneers Park picnic grounds, covered by water two to six feet deep, were closed Thursday.

Park Supt. Jim Agar said the picnic grounds would remain closed about a week, but that remainder of the park would be open to visitors.

Some roads, which could be damaged by traffic will be closed, but traffic will be allowed on the asphalt drives.

During the heavy rain, 72 junior-high age girls and their adult counselors were evacuated from Scout Camp Minis Kuya at the southwest edge of Lincoln between 3 and 5 a.m. Thursday.

As a "precautionary measure" against the possibility of the campsite becoming marooned, Lincoln Police and the Sheriff's Patrol assisted in taking the girls to their home.

Crosby Considering Study Of State Hospitals

Committee Might Be Appointed

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

A review of operations by the three state mental hospitals by a citizens committee is being given "serious consideration," Gov. Robert Crosby said Thursday.

"There has been considerable comment regarding the shortage of psychiatrists in the hospitals and that if more doctors were employed mentally ill persons could be treated and released," Crosby explained. "Some contend that low salaries prevent hiring of doctors while others insist that due to the shortage of psychiatrists salary is not the big problem."

"Probably the people of the state would be better satisfied if a committee of persons interested in mental health reviewed operations and reported on their conclusions as to whether the state is doing all possible to provide proper care for these people."

The governor said there is the problem of finding persons sincerely interested in mental health who can afford to serve on the committee which would be non-paid and he members would even have to pay their own expenses.

If he decides the committee would be beneficial, the governor said it would function in much the same way as the committee recently named to make a review of operations of the three adult penal institutions.

The governor said a "progress report" on how Nebraska is meeting its state institution operational problems as compared with work being done in other states might be very timely.

"I believe the people of the state want to go forward and take advantage of all advances of medical science in care of the mentally ill," Crosby explained. "If by spending additional dollars we can keep patients out of hospitals, it is economy to improve personnel and avoid having to erect additional buildings."

Leon Grandsinger Held At Rushville

Lincoln Star Special
VALENTINE, Neb. — County Sheriff Bill Freeman Thursday took Leon Grandsinger, charged with first degree murder in the death of a State Highway Patrolman, to Rushville where he will be held in the Sheridan County Jail until his brother, Loyd, is transferred to the Nebraska Penitentiary.

Loyd has been sentenced to die in the electric chair for the slaying of Patrolman Marvin Hansen, but is being held in Valentine during a 30-day suspension period while his attorneys prepare a motion for a new trial.

Leon was arraigned in District Court less than two hours after the verdict was reached for Loyd. Leon waived preliminary hearing and his case was turned over to the District Court. The next District Court term is not scheduled until fall. However, a special session may be called for the case, authorities said.

School Petitions Again Circulated

FAIRBURY, Neb. — New petitions for organization of a Diller rural high school district have been distributed to representatives of the 12 rural school districts involved.

The petitions were distributed following a meeting of representatives from the districts involved this week.

Eight of the districts are in Jefferson County and four in Gage County.

ROBERT W. DEVOE

Regent Devoe Not To Seek Re-election

Robert W. Devoe of Lincoln, University of Nebraska regent for three six-year terms, Thursday announced that he would not run for re-election.

Devoe issued the following statement:

"It is with a great deal of personal reluctance that I have decided to retire from the Board of Regents. I would very much like to continue with Dr. Clifford M. Hardin (new University chancellor) as he begins what I am sure will be a great new era at the University."

"At the end of my present term, however, I have served for 18 years, during which the University survived and recovered from drought and depression, co-operated wholeheartedly in the training programs of World War II, served magnificently the needs of thousands of students in the post-war years, and finally, obtained financial support for a long overdue building program."

"All of these are major accomplishments and represent, in a way, the end of a phase of University development with which I have been associated. I am sincerely grateful for the opportunity I have had to play a small part in these achievements of the University of the past 18 years."

Public Support Needed
"We have a good University here in Nebraska, but we need a better one. Some day, perhaps, we will learn that better education for more citizens is vital to a living democracy. Eighteen years on the board has taught me that some way must be found to obtain public support for the investment in higher education with at least the same ease that we gain public support for expenditures which promise no future return."

"I appreciate more than I can say the encouragement and help that I have received from the people of my district and from the faculties of the University. I appreciate, too, the requests that I have received urging me to seek another term. But I have decided to retire from active service with the University and the decision is made easier for me by the knowledge that the voters will give careful thought to the selection of a successor."

Estate Tax Set

Inheritance taxes of $304.96 against the $7,942 valued estate of Flora Ford Crews, who died Dec. 24, 1953, have been assessed by the Lancaster County Court.

Swanson Files For NU Regent

Clarence E. Swanson, Lincoln businessman and past national president of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association, has filed as a candidate for the University Board of Regents.

Swanson, president of Hovland-Swanson clothing firm, has been on the board of trustees executive committee of the University Foundation since 1952.

"My deep appreciation for what the university has done for me," he said in filing, "places an obligation for service which I hope I can contribute."

National president of the Alumni Association in 1945, he was alumni representative on the Athletic Board from 1938 to 1947 and received the university's Distinguished Service Award in 1948.

Graduated from the university in 1922, he had been a member of Innocents and N Club. He was captain of the football team, an All-American and a Nebraska all-time great.

Swanson was elected to the Lincoln Board of Education in 1937 and has been an officer of the Community Chest, director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, organizer and president of the Better Business Bureau here and director and president of the University Club.

He is a First Presbyterian Church trustee and a Mason. The First Regents District post Swanson seeks is held by Board of Regents President R. W. Devoe of Lincoln, who will not seek re-election.

STILL IN LOVE WITH SUSAN, BARKER SAYS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Jess Barker testified Thursday that he still loves Susan Hayward but the red-haired screen beauty charged that she had to persuade the actor to marry her in 1944 because he was afraid marriage would harm his career.

Barker, who blamed mother-in-law troubles for the breakup of his marriage, doted a longing glance at the glamorous film actress, swallowed hard and testified:

"I wish a reconciliation were possible. I love my wife and children very much."

The actor testified in Miss Hayward's stormy divorce action.

Earlier a deposition from Miss Hayward was read in court by one of the actor's attorneys. The actress declared in the deposition that she had to persuade the actor to marry her 10 years ago because he was afraid that marriage "would affect his standing with bobby soxers."

Soviet Cartoon Protested By U.S.

MOSCOW (AP) — The U. S. Embassy sent a protest note Thursday to the Soviet government describing as "scurrilous and particularly shocking" a Krokodil magazine cartoon version of Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal's 1949 death plunge.

The cartoon showed Forrestal landing on his chin. Forrestal died May 22, 1949, in a plunge from a window of his room at the U. S. Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Md.

"The Soviet government has good reason to recall the great services of Mr. Forrestal to the common cause during the war," the note declared, adding that the cartoon showed "total disregard of even the most elementary tenets of civilized decency."

Krokodil suggested that the cartoon serve as a model for a monument to Forrestal and called the late American official "the active organizer and first victim of the United States war psychosis."

Col. F. B. O'Connell Will Retire From Active Army Duty

After 17 years of active duty with the Army, Col. Frank B. O'Connell, deputy state director of Selective Service, has announced he will retire July 3.

O'Connell began work in Selective Service in 1936 as Nebraska representative on the joint Army-Navy committee. In 1940 he resigned as secretary of the State Game Commission, a post he had held for 15 years, and entered the Army.

After six years as chief of the manpower division, Col. O'Connell was assigned in 1946 as advisor to the Nationalist Army of China where he served two years. In 1949 he was recalled to duty and assigned to the Nebraska Selective Service Department as deputy director.

He has served 32 years in the National Guard and is a veteran of World Wars I and II.

Omaha U Budget Of $1,701,500 OK'd By Regents

OMAHA (AP) — University of Omaha regents Thursday approved a $1,701,500 budget for the 1954-55 fiscal year.

This compared with a budget for the current fiscal year of $1,609,400.

The regents passed a resolution certifying a mill levy sufficient to produce $861,000.500 from tax funds. This is 5 per cent above the amount which the 1.6 mill levy should bring during the current year. The levy is not to exceed two mills.

Suspect Quizzed

EL CENTRO, Calif. (INS) — Imperial County police continued Thursday to question a 29-year old Lebanon, Pa., man concerning the May 15 slaying of a pretty El Centro drive-in waitress. Deputy District Attorney Wyatt Briggs said the suspect, Marvin C. Boyd, has indicated the victim, 28-year-old Shirley Fields, may be buried in a shallow grave about 70 miles southeast of El Centro.

Increased Water Supply

The people of Lincoln knew full well when they voted the necessary revenue bond issue to augment Lincoln's water supply that they would be lucky if the new Ashland pipeline, which occupies a key spot in the comprehensive program, were complete by the fall of 1955, ready for use.

Now the word is that a new additional reservoir of 5,000,000 gallons capacity will be in service shortly after the first of next month, in which event storage will be increased substantially. We hope that is true. There has never been any good reason from the time the people of this community gave most enthusiastic approval to the expanded water program why there should be any dragging of feet in increasing storage facilities. And outwardly at least it has appeared that the work has been pushed energetically, particularly by the successful contractor who has been doing the work on the 5,000,000 gallon reservoir.

After its completion Mr. Erickson, the head of the city engineering department, naturally will want to give it the necessary tests. But if a delay ensues in adding the storage of this new reservoir to the city's supply of water, it should be charged to Mr. Erickson and his department.

The people of Lincoln have done their part handsomely.

Dan Reed Knows Best?

"Led by Chairman Daniel Reed of the House Ways and Means Committee, these forces opposed to extending the reciprocal trade act want to attach to a one-year renewal a proviso that would just about destroy its meaning. They wish to exact a commitment that during the renewal life of the act the President will negotiate no new trade agreements. In other words they are willing to grant the White House this reciprocal trade authority if it promises not to use it. One finds it difficult to imagine what the barest of surface appearances is preserved by this intent to give the right hand and take back with the left. It is the real desire and intent of these forces in Congress to kill the reciprocal trade program, let them declare their purposes and fight for them. From the issue will be drawn for all to understand, for the President surely would be assuring himself in clear opposition to such proposals,"—from the Keeney Mob (R).

That is expecting a whole of a lot of candor out of the cynical atmosphere that has developed in Washington in the last year.

Too frequently, it has appeared, the idea has been not to let the right hand know what the left is doing, or vice versa. Mr. Eisenhower's party associates in Congress recognize full well the President's lack of education in things political. He spent the better part of a life-time giving orders which were to be obeyed. It is slightly different when it comes to dealing with Congress, a co-ordinate branch of government, proud and jealous of its prerogatives.

But the irony of the thing is that Mr. Eisenhower himself seems to fall in step with the elements within his own party totally and completely at odds with the President's avowed objectives. Here was Presidential Aide Sherman Adams, with an eye on the fall elections, suggesting that if the President faced a Democratic Congress it was unlikely that Mr. Eisenhower would be a candidate for re-election in 1956.

And the administration's staunch support-

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Nebraskans never have extended themselves when it came to putting out money for development of their state parks. For the current biennium the Legislature appropriated $269,303.45—an approximate $135,000 annually for all the parks. It is clear there is little or no money for permanent improvement of any of the parks. It is understandable. There are so many places calling for money, and there is a limit beyond which the Legislature feels it cannot go.

Unfortunately it leaves Nebraska sadly trailing other states, particularly those to the west of us which have vast national parks within their borders. Meanwhile interest outside in old Ft. Robinson continues to run high. Gene Kemper, of the Alliance Times-Herald, noting the state's resources chief, C. V. Price, told a legislative "council committee as a state park old Ft. Robinson son "would be a great drawing card for Nebraska, and possibly contribute to a tourist income of three to four million dollars annually," enthusiastically endorses what Price had to say. "The lore of the place, the topography and the buildings available lend themselves to a park that would provide both historic and recreational interest," Kemper adds. And then he directs attention to one possibility which this newspaper has suggested on frequent occasions. Old Ft. Robinson would be an ideal stop-over for people visiting both Yellowstone and the Black Hills.

But it is impossible to develop parks without making a capital investment. Before people flock to parks it is necessary to spend whatever sums of money are required for acceptable facilities. And the nominal fees which can be charged will not produce the revenue for that capital investment.

"Nebraska might take a lesson from the federal government," Sterling McCaw of the Norfolk News writes in commenting on an article by Bernard DeVoto calling attention to the bad state of some of the national parks, suggesting they be closed until they could be put in shape. "Our own parks take a great deal of money," he adds. We do not know what Mr. McCaw thinks is a great deal of money when it comes to the state park system, but the facts are that if there is any neglected orphan among the state's activities, it is the state park system. "We are being asked to add old Ft. Robinson to our state park area," Mr. McCaw continues. "The old fort would make a magnificent park with some of the best scenery in the state but it lies only 25 or 30 miles from the Chadron State Park. Before we invest in more park area we should figure out where the money to support it is coming from." Well there is a lot of common sense in that observation. It is always well to look before leaping. But there is no unlimited time for Nebraska to make up its mind. Old Ft. Robinson belongs to the federal government, and if the state wants it, all of its 22,000 acres can be had for free so far as the title to the land is concerned and all that goes with the land. If Nebraska does not want it then Uncle Sam will sell it to the private parties.

If that happens Nebraskans 50 years hence will be kicking and will have good justification for calling upon colorful language to express themselves about the stupidity of another generation. There is not a single stretch of land in this state so ideally adapted to park purposes as old Ft. Robinson.

ers among the American press grabbed that one to sing it gaily. No word, no thought about the President's open battle with fellow Republicans over trade.

Mr. Eisenhower will not encounter any considerable Democratic opposition in putting through his reciprocal trade program. He can count on Democrats to support it much more effectively than Republicans. He can know from the sorry experience of recent months that even while grabbing his coat tails at election time, once elected a powerful stand-pat element in his own party will kick him in the pants when it comes to voting for the Eisenhower reciprocal trade program. The Reeds and the Simpsons and all of their cronies are against it. Does the President himself appreciate the absurdity of asking the people to elect men who oppose much that Mr. Eisenhower favors?

That is the cynical phase of Washington's atmosphere today.

Swanson Files

Interest in the selection of a regent to represent the First Nebraska District on the University of Nebraska Board of Regents was heightened Thursday by the announcement of Clarence E. Swanson, a solid, substantial business man, and a most loyal devoted graduate of the institution, that he would be a candidate. Participation in the administrative responsibilities in education is not a new role for Mr. Swanson. He was elected to the Lincoln Board of Education in 1937 to contribute a conspicuously excellent service. As a member of the University Foundation Board of Trustees' executive committee, alumni representative on the University Board of Athletics for nearly a decade and a president of the Alumni Association in 1945, Mr. Swanson has been closely associated with the affairs of the University of Nebraska for many years.

Outstanding Man

When Nebraska gets around to handing out citations for the outstanding man of 1954 it should recall that that distinction was earned in June and probably nothing will occur during the rest of the year to alter that fact.

The man is Otto Gibson of Falls City, a locomotive fireman, who with utter disregard for his own life and in an act of purest heroism he leaped from the cab made his way to the front of the engine, jumped to the ground and barely outran the train to snatch a two-year-old child from the jaws of death. The little child was standing in the train's path innocent of the awful danger. It was a close race but Gibson swept the child into his arms and rolled to safety without an inch to spare. A man who performs an act like that pretty well ends the debate on who is most worthy.

Joe Is Old Hat

The latest poll samplings indicate that Sen. Joe McCarthy has slipped three points in his national popularity rating the past fortnight. Only 35 per cent of the respondents expressed favor for him.

In a long range appraisal of a well-known figure, week by week poll taking is not very dependable. He can rise or fall a few points by temporary public reaction. McCarthy has less to fear from such small set-backs as he has by letting the public get too well acquainted with him. He is beginning to lose his novelty and his entertainment value. That is deadly to any fellow who has to succeed by being spectacular.

Need Federal Aid

We sent our special investigator out to see how the Republican party was doing in Nebraska. He came back and reported that good corn prospects had helped it and the fact that the fish have started biting better than usual in Nebraska water was relieving the pressure on the national administration. But if the party doesn't do something quick to get the Lincoln Chiefs back in first place in the Western League the GOP won't get five votes in this section this fall.

School Unit Contracting Takes Drop

The number of rural school districts sending their elementary pupils to school in other districts by contract declined slightly last year, State Suplt. F. B. Decker reported Thursday.

The 1951-52 figure was 1,790, and the 1952-53 figure was 1,765.

Most of the contracting rural districts send their pupils to city and town schools.

In 1952-53, there were 965 rural districts contracting with only city and town districts, while 225 rural districts contracted with both rural and city and town districts. The number of rural districts contracting only with other rural districts was 516.

Furnas Leader

Furnas County, with 58, had more contracting rural school districts than any other Nebraska county. Custer County had 57, Cherry, Fillmore and Lincoln counties had 46 each.

Red Willow County reported 41, and Thayer had 40.

Counties reporting between 30 and 40 contracting districts each included Gage, Lancaster, Frontier, Hamilton, Holt, Kearney, Knox, Pawnee, Phelps, Richardson and Saline.

Merging of school districts accounts for most of the reduction in the number of contracting rural districts, Decker commented.

STAN DELAPLANE'S POSTCARD

Mr. Florian Niederer is chief of the efficient Swiss National Tourist office. His office looks down on the bustling Bahnhofplatz in Zurich. Behind his desk is a little sign in English:

"Anyone who enjoys work can certainly have a hell of a time in this place."

Within 15 minutes he had information on it's way to me from Bern, a room at the elegant Dolder Grand Hotel and a lunch-con table at the oak-beamed Walliser Kanne whose specialties are from the Swiss canton of Valais.

"By golly," said Mr. Niederer, "everybody expects me to be a miracle man. You leave Switzerland content, happy, with everything you need? Good."

American tourists spill over into clean, bright, Switzerland with a great sigh of relief.

While the franc and the lire and the peseta slid up and down the dollar scale, Swiss hard francs held firm at 4.25 to the $1. Now the European currencies have skyrocketed. And American tourists are running to cover in the agreeable price range of Switzerland.

"I hope I shall never see the day in Switzerland when we have a hotel with more than 400 beds," said Florian Niederer. "We Swiss must never compete in mass production. Where we have our place in the sun is in quality and precision. Do you like trout?"

"I said I like trout."

"The trout here is 'Danceuse du Rhone.' We will also have a white wine, Ermitage. All from Valais."

"The ideal Swiss hotel is 120 to 150 beds and family-owned. The owner knows the concierge. In the morning he greets him: 'Johann, I hope you passed well the night. You slept well?' That is ideal."

"We have 7,841 hotels in Switzerland. Only 31 can carry more than 200 people. We are a land of precision. The hotel guest is as in his own home. We do not handle conventions. Do you like ham with asparagus?"

"I said I like ham with asparagus. The asparagus was fresh. Like all European asparagus, it was white. The ham was cold and salty and slightly dry."

Mr. Niederer said he ordered ham so that we would have a little red meat. This would give us just enough excuse to have red wine.

"Gloire du Rhone. The glory of the Rhone," he said. "Do you know that the American hotel here? The Swiss would not permit it. We have been hotel men for generations. We must keep our own precision."

Mr. Niederer is a slim gray-haired Swiss. Like all Swiss he

Brown Won't Seek Congress Position

Joseph J. Brown, chairman of the State Railway Commission, announced Thursday he will not seek the First District Congressional nomination in the August Nebraska primary.

"Until my responsibilities to this Railway Commission job are more nearly completed, I am not in position to stand for election to Congress from this district," said Brown, who had been mentioned as a possible candidate for the position.

Brown was elected to a six-year term on the Railway Commission in 1952. A lawyer by profession, he served as secretary of the commission for many years before becoming a commissioner.

Brown's withdrawal as a possible congressional candidate coincided with the announcement from Ira D. Beynon, Lincoln attorney, that he would seek the Republican nomination to that post.

HARDY FURNITURE CO.

Ira D. Beynon, Lincoln attorney, announced Thursday that he is a candidate for the First District Congressional nomination on the Republican ticket.

Beynon, former Republican National Committeeman and Buffalo County chairman, recently returned from Washington where he served as director of real property in the Eisenhower Administration.

The only other Republican to file for the Congressional office is Phil Weaver of Falls City.

As a man who was born and reared on a farm, Beynon says he has "definite ideas" on the type of farm program needed, although his complete position will not be explained until the campaign.

'Fluid Plan'

Beynon termed Agriculture Secretary Benson's flexible price support program "a fluid plan." He said he had discussed the program with Benson's staff in Washington and added, "There are many things in Benson's plan which are fine. There are other things that he (Benson) himself is not so sure of."

He described the farm program problem as a "big one—all of us need to work this out in a non-partisan way."

Beynon added, "Right now, the farmer is in a squeeze with the high cost of things he must buy compared with the lower price he receives for what he has to sell."

"My decision to file for Congress," Beynon said, "is prompted by my interest in furthering a national policy for dispersal of industrial and governmental activities."

Move Agencies

"If our nation is to survive against atomic attack, we must move governmental agencies and industrial plants from the critical areas where they are now concentrated to the relative safety of the Middle West."

"I worked on such a program while on the staff of the Secretary of Defense but realized that if it is to become effective it must have congressional support."

"I hope that the next few years will see a gigantic migration of industries and governmental agencies from strategic target areas in the east to the cities and villages of the Middle West."

Beynon said that in the campaign he expects to alert the people of the First District "to their opportunities and responsibilities in this dispersal program. The county seat towns and other good cities of southern Nebraska are ideally situated to become locations for factories and governmental agencies."

Beynon also said it will be his "sincere desire" to "support the President in the difficult domestic and foreign problems which confront the nation."

Beynon is a World War veteran, charter member of Lincoln Post No. 3 of the American Legion and a past state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

'County Board Can't Abolish Assessor Post'

The attorney general's office ruled Thursday that a county board does not have authority to abolish the office of county assessor.

The ruling was requested by Burt County Attorney Fred Jack of Tekamah, who explained the county board there sought to disperse with the office of surveyor and appoint an engineer who could make long range plans and adequately handle the county road problems.

Assistant Attorney Gen. Ralph Nelson explained that the office of surveyor was created by the Legislature under authority granted to it by the constitution to "provide for the election of such county officers as may be necessary."

The Legislature has prescribed certain powers and duties for the county surveyor.

"The number and character of county officers that may be created rests in the discretion of the Legislature, pursuant to the authority conferred by the constitution of Nebraska. There is no such grant of authority to the county boards. We conclude that the county board does not have authority to abolish the office of county surveyor," Nelson said.

Carson Finishes Filing For Short U.S. Senate Post

State Sen. Hugh Carson of Ord Thursday completed filing for the Republican U. S. Senatorial nomination for the short term.

His candidacy had been previously announced.

Carson became the fifth to file for the short term, which runs only from the time general election results are certified until the full term candidate takes over in January. Previous filings had come from S. E. Torgeson, Kimball attorney; Richard R. Dempster, North Platte business man; Max A. Denney, Fairbury attorney and former administrative assistant to Gov. Robert Crosby; and Myles Standish, Omaha business man.

Carson, 55, is a native of Ord and attended the University of Nebraska. He was elected to three straight terms in the Legislature in 1948, 1950 and 1952.

"Wilbur... Wilbur, where are you. I warned you never to play with my bubble soap!"

State To Erect Radar Warnings

State Engineer L. N. Ress said Thursday the Highway Department will erect signs at 46 locations where highways enter the state, informing drivers that radar is being used in Nebraska to enforce speed limits.

The department has one radar set now and two more are on order. The equipment will be moved from place to place.

Ress said no signs will be placed on a specific stretch of highway indicating use of radar in that area at a particular time.

Detachment of certain property involved in a boundary dispute would "destroy the symmetry of the village limits," according to a brief filed in State Supreme Court Thursday for the village of Meadow Grove.

The use of the property is urban and not agricultural, the brief further contends.

The Madison County District Court entered a decree detaching six lots, but denying detachment of two others. Owners of the two lots then appealed.

Partial School System Collapse Seen

The collapse of the public school system in some areas was predicted in an interview here by Dr. William A. Early, president of the National Education Association, unless "something drastic happens."

Dr. Early, superintendent of schools at Savannah, Ga., spoke at a summer session workshop at the University of Nebraska.

DR. WILLIAM EARLY

Nebraska, Dr. Early said, is one of the lowest states in the country in regard to educational standards. This state's problem, he said, is a common one—too few teachers, too low salaries and low certification requirements.

The problem across the country in general, he said, is the fact that some 6 million more children will enter school in the next six years while more teachers are leaving the profession than are entering it.

"There is actually no shortage of teachers," Dr. Early said, "but there is a shortage of teachers teaching. The educational system today is getting mostly rejects or missionaries with industry skimming off the cream of the profession."

There are currently 75,000 teachers a year leaving their profession, he said, while only about 40 per cent of 90,000 teachers trained every year are entering the profession.

"The public," he said, "must be aroused to action before it is too late. The question is, do we want schools and good education?"

State Being Pirated

The lowering of standards, Dr. Early stated, will not increase the teacher supply but will only aggravate the problem.

"Nebraska, as well as some other states in the union, is being pirated terribly by other states" which maintain higher standards and pay higher salaries, Wyoming, he said, will say they don't need to train teachers as "they can get them from Nebraska."

The starting salary in Nebraska, he said, averages $2,200

University of Nebraska, he discussed the role of citizens in solving school problems.

Only when the responsibility is laid in the laps of the citizens of a community, he said, do persons develop an interest in their schools.

He reminded that colonial leaders said the only hopes of survival of the republic is an intelligent, educated electorate. Somewhere along the line, he said, "we have failed in this one thing."

People will be interested in their schools when they realize schools are a business, Early said. The people in the community should be vitally interested because they invest the raw material—their children—and they invest their money.

Interrogators during the afternoon session were Mrs. Victor Haas of Omaha, chairman of college cooperation for the Nebraska PTA; Pearl Schaaf, principal of a Grand Island elementary school; William B. Bogar, principal of Lincoln High School; and Otto Oakes, president of the Nebraska State Education Association and superintendent of schools at North Platte.

Iowa Toll Road Report Delayed

DES MOINES (AP)—John Butler, chief engineer of the Iowa State Highway Commission said Thursday the commission's forthcoming report on the feasibility of an Iowa toll road will be delayed in release until sometime in July.

Last week, Gov. William S. Beardsley said the commission had informed him the report would be made public by July 1. Butler explained the delay was due to his request to firms making surveys for more details than previously had been asked.

The firm of Coverdale and Colpitts, New York, is estimating the traffic and revenue a super highway would bring. The firm of Howard, Needles, Hammond and Bergendorf, Kansas City, is estimating the cost of a toll road, in conjunction with the highway commission.

Safety Campaign Of SAC Pays Off; Accidents Down

OMAHA (AP)—The Strategic Air Command's "Safe Aircraft Campaign for '54" paid off during the first five months of this year with a 35 per cent reduction in the accident rate, despite a 20 per cent increase in flying hours, Gen. Curtis E. LeMay said.

LeMay, commander of the SAC, credited the safety program with dropping the command's overall accident rate to 15 accidents per 100,000 hours flown for the first five months of 1954, as compared to 23 for the same period in 1953, the safest flying year in SAC history.

"This progress in aircraft accident prevention," Gen. LeMay said, "is especially noteworthy when we consider that it was achieved during a period of conversion to jet aircraft, increased utilization of such revolutionary new techniques as air refueling, and expansion of operations to meet global commitments."

Anti-Guatemala Recruits Walk Honduras Streets

... Resistance Move Grows

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (P)—Recruits for an apparent resistance move against Guatemala's leftist government walked Tegucigalpa's streets openly in uniform Thursday, despite a plea from the Guatemalan envoy to curb them.

Foreign correspondents in the Honduran capital were impressed by the numbers of khaki-clad men in the city and gathered at the airport. Wearing no insignia, the men boarded planes without any apparent effort to hide their movements. Reports from San Pedro Sula, a banana center 110 miles northwest of Tegucigalpa and only 25 miles from the Guatemalan border, said the resistance forces also were moving about openly there.

Exiles Airlifted
Guatemalan Ambassador Amadeo Chinchilla urged Honduras to halt the movement of men and arms to points near the common border. But usually reliable sources said Guatemalan exiles loyal to Carlos Castillo Armas, who heads the resistance movement here, still were being airlifted toward their native country.

Chinchilla made his plea to Honduran Foreign Minister J. Edgardo Valenzuela. Later he told newsmen: "We have reports that well equipped soldiers carrying guns are being flown and driven by car to points near our border. They are being flown in chartered planes."

The ambassador said Valenzuela had assured him Honduras "will prevent any incidents at the border and has given orders for the seizure of any arms there. The ambassador said many

Costa Ricans and Nicaraguans were believed to be "around Castillo Armas."

Castillo Armas said his resistance movement is manned by Guatemalans, that some Costa Ricans at his headquarters are not taking an active part in it, and that there are no Nicaraguans with him.

Additional reports of friction between President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman and the Army and of bloody clashes between police and anti-Communists filtered out belatedly through Guatemala's censorship.

Most significant of these was a report Arbenz had met frequently with leading army officers in the last two weeks after rumors spread the government would arm farm workers. Informal sources close to the president said he had been able to placate the officers.

Aid Cut-Off Looms
WASHINGTON (INS)—The U.S. threatened to end the technical "Point Four" program in Guatemala and asked non-Communist nations to permit American search of their ships on the high seas to block arms shipments to the Red-tainted government.

The threat to cut off the American technical co-operation program was voiced by Foreign Operations Director Harold E. Stassen. The U.S. is now spending $188,000 in the Central American nation on rubber development and agricultural research programs and a hospital aid project.

Plot Was Trigger
WASHINGTON (INS)—Rep. Frances Bolton (R-O), said she has been informed that the current reign of terror in Guatemala was triggered with the discovery of a well-planned plot to overthrow the government.

Mrs. Bolton told newsmen that "some documents" were left in the desk of a key member of the anti-Communist underground on June 10.

The owner of the master plan was identified by Mrs. Bolton as Dr. Domingo Goicola Villacorta of Guatemala City. She said she does not know what happened to him.

C. W. Moberg Sentence Is Commuted

Half of the 10 inmates of the state penitentiary granted clemency by the state board of pardons and paroles at their June meeting Thursday were serving sentences for forgery or no account check charges.

Charles W. Moberg, 43, serving a three year sentence for escape from the Lancaster county jail was granted a commutation of his sentence to date. He claimed that his escape was in an attempt to obtain defense counsel because he could not get any help from county authorities.

Moberg's parents charged that they were "laughed at" when they attempted to talk to the county attorney but that there has been a change in attitude and that a "month ago he had plenty of time to talk to me."

The parents backed up Moberg's statements that he sought to protect his property which was being sold by his wife "and the man who broke up his home."

Moberg was caught in Kansas City about three months after his escape early in 1953.

The complete list of actions by the board were:

Penitentiary
Ever Bradsman, 35, Alliance, forgery, Box Butte County, one to two years, 1953; paroled.
Richard E. Loomis, 23, Kearney, statutory rape, Buffalo County, five years, 1952; paroled.
Robert Sall, 27, Gothenburg, mayhem, Dawson County, three years, 1953; paroled.
Charles W. Miller, 30, Fremont, forgery, Dodge County, two to five years, 1952; paroled.
L. J. Anderson, 39, Omaha, no account check and violation bench parole, Douglas County, one to three years, 1952; paroled.
Alfred E. Kelso, 35, Omaha, forgery, Douglas County, five years, 1952; committed.
Claude W. Hurley, 50, Grand Island, forgery, possession of forged instrument and violation bench parole, Hall County, one to three years, 1953; paroled.
Collins Davis, 21, Lincoln, stealing auto, Lancaster County, two years, 1953; paroled.
Charles W. Moberg, 43, Lincoln, escape from jail, Lancaster County, three years, 1953; committed.
Alton G. Beattie, 61, Max, Neb., feloniously entering building, five to eight years, 1950, Red Willow County, committed.

Reformatory
Bernard Shipman, 20, Fremont, burglary and parole violation, Dodge County, one to three years, 1953; paroled.
Lawrence E. Moore, 19, Omaha, burglary, Douglas County, one to three years, 1952; paroled.
Rodney F. Cheever, 21, Lincoln, burglary, Lancaster County, one to three years, 1953; paroled.
Richard M. Heston, 19, Seward, Mich., stealing auto, Lancaster County, one to three years, 1952; paroled.

The application of Manuel G. Montanez, 32, of Billings, Mont., for a full pardon from a 30-day jail sentence imposed in Scotts Bluff County in 1939 on a theft complaint was deferred to obtain further information.

Fort Knox People Retrieve Bombs

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (P)—Some people from Fort Knox dropped by E. T. Holloway's farm to pick up a couple of their bombs.

The bombs—real, live ones—were dropped there by a Sabre jet that had taken part in a demonstration.

The 500-pound, high-explosive bombs and two 5-inch rockets, released from a low altitude, didn't explode.

Holloway said he understood the Sabre pilot was instructed to get rid of any unused explosives at a certain spot.

He just missed the spot.

District Judges Open State Meeting

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—The three-day state convention of Nebraska District Judges opened Thursday with discussion of technical problems involving juries.

The judges talked over adoption of a jurors' handbook and changes in jury selection laws.

A banquet was held Thursday night.

Friday's discussions will center around standardized instructions for jurors, legislation, probation and practice, and procedure in juvenile cases.

Arthur C. Thomson of Omaha is president of the group, which will not elect officers during the meeting here. The election is held at the time of the Nebraska State Bar Assn. meeting.

Twenty-four of the state's 35 district judges had registered for the convention.

14 State FHA Girls To Attend Michigan Meet

Fourteen Nebraska FHA girls and three adult advisers will attend the Central regional meeting of the Future Homemakers of America June 22-25 on the Michigan State College campus at East Lansing, Mich.

Theme of the meeting will be "Are You a Leader for Better Homes?"

All of the delegates will participate in the program.

Roene Malcom, Cozad, national historian, will preside at several general sessions.

Mary Govaert of Broken Bow will give a response to the convention welcome.

Janet Grothe of Tekamah, Phyllis Schulz, Lincoln and Alyce Fritchman, Chappell, are in charge of a morning devotion.

Alyce Fritchman will work on the conference newspaper.

Patsy Pollach, Ewing, and Janet Grothe will serve as discussion groups: Betty Bower, Ainsworth, and Peggy Fahnholz, will be recorders; Janice Reeder, Cambridge and Marion Rickert, Lincoln, evaluators; Jody Story, Ainsworth and Mary Govaert, Broken Bow, will be hostesses.

Verlee Peterson, Plainview will give a banquet reading. Mildred Nelson, St. Edward, and Patricia Schleuter, Ainsworth and Verlee Peterson are in charge of election arrangements.

Adult advisers are Miss Lillian Schmidt of the state department of vocational education; Miss Tellman, Plainview and Miss Rebbe, Tekamah.

Ore Discovered

PARIS (AP)—The French news agency reported Thursday that important quantities of uranium-thorium ore have been discovered on the island of Madagascar off the East African Coast. Uranium previously has been found in several spots on the island and is being mined.

Federal Pen Term Is Given To Fremont

OMAHA (AP)—Don F. Pollock, president of Don F. Pollock Properties, Inc., of Fremont, Thursday was sentenced to a federal prison term on charges of obtaining money through illegal FHA-backed loans.

Pollock had pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) to 11 counts and Judge James A. Donohoe sentenced him to a year on each count, the sentences to run concurrently.

Pollock also was fined $100 on each count and ordered to pay the cost of prosecution.

Joseph Titze, former sales manager for the firm who had pleaded nolo contendere to eight counts on a similar charge, also appeared for sentencing.

Judge Donohoe ordered Titze placed on three years probation on each of the eight counts, the probationary periods to run concurrently.

The government dismissed 19 counts against Pollock and 21 against Titze.

A federal grand jury last week refused to indict two other Fremont men associated with subsidiaries of Pollock Properties.

Much Southeast Farmland Flooded By Heavy Rains

Steinauer's High Water Is Receding

Flood waters, inundating much rich farmland in southeastern Nebraska, were receding late Thursday in eastern and southeastern areas, as the Weather Bureau predicted more rainfall for the same sections of the state.

Turkey Creek at Steinauer appeared to be receding late Thursday after flood waters crept within half a block of the town's main street. The bridge over Turkey Creek on the spur leading to Highway 65 south of Steinauer is now passable.

Highway 65, closed most of Thursday, was opened south of Steinauer later in the day. Crop damage and livestock loss in the farm area near there was expected to be heavy.

Rains at Steinauer, 25 miles southeast of Beatrice, were officially measured at 7 inches.

Humboldt had an unofficial 5.40 inches and Falls City 3.20. The Nemaha River was out of its banks for 20 miles from Dawson to Rulo.

It appeared to have leveled off at 27.68 feet at Falls City about 4 p.m. Flood stage there is 21.50.

A washout east of Humboldt on the Burlington Railroad tracks was repaired but highway traffic was cut off between Falls City and Salem and Falls City and Preston.

Some traffic moved cautiously between Falls City and Rulo late Thursday.

Salem Bridge Out

The Salem bridge over the Nemaha was reported washed out but no one could get close enough to verify the report.

Heavy rains also hit the St. Paul-Loup City area in central Nebraska, but only local flooding was reported limiting damage to filled basements.

The Nemaha River was also out of its banks at Tecumseh and Highway 3, west of there, was flooded in at least two places. A stream known as Town Branch backed up at Tecumseh, causing local flooding. However, no damage was done to homes.

Yankee Creek flooded at Vista.

No major towns in the Nemaha River area were threatened, however, since all are on high ground.

Muddy Creek, a large stream in the Falls City area, also was out of its banks.

St. Paul Deluge

Basements in homes and business houses, mostly in the southeast part of St. Paul, were being pumped out Thursday after rain, measuring 4.25 inches, fell there.

Water measured 18-inches deep in downtown St. Paul streets immediately following the deluge, but receded shortly after the rains stopped.

Two Burlington Railroad washouts, one near Farwell, and another between Farwell and Ashton, were reported. A Burlington bridge east of St. Paul was undermined, after the rains forced a new channel of a creek flowing there.

In a hail strip in the St. Paul area, oats fields were left so short they couldn't be cut with a lawnmower, observers said.

Two basement walls in the Noble Larson home in St. Paul caved in as water filled the basement.

A St. Paul farmer, Joe Toman, lost seven cows when lightning struck a tree on his farm.

Danneberg reported some local flooding following a five-inch downpour there.

The Middle Loup River, which runs near Loup City where 5.50 inches fell, did not show signs of flooding although it rose somewhat.

One foot of water in the home

Highway 65 East Of Steinauer Blocked

Traffic east from Steinauer was at a standstill Thursday after heavy rains coupled with high winds sent Turkey Creek out of its banks. The portion of the State Highway 65 (above) extending about one-half mile was submerged as were three bridges and the Rock Island right-of-way in the distance. Steinauer was cut off from traffic from the south and telephone lines were down. (Star Staff Photo.)

Lewiston School Struck Third Time

Lightning during Thursday's thunderstorm struck the chimney at the Lewiston High School nearly demolishing it and damaging windows and roof. It was the third time lightning has hit the chimney in recent year. Shown inspecting the damage are (from left) H. J. Lovelace, vocational agriculture instructor; John Schmidt, custodian and Coach R. S. Laue. Rain in the area sent creeks and rivers rampaging over roads and bridges. Various estimates on the amount of rain in the Lewiston-Burchard-Steinauer area ranged from three to eight inches. (Star Staff Photo.)

of Edmund Badura in Loup City forced the Badura family to evacuate. However, by late Thursday the water had receded.

Much silt covered Loup City streets Thursday after local flooding had gone down. Most hour period.

Other towns in the Loup City area receiving substantial rains included Rockville 3.00; Ashton 2.85; Litchfield 1.00 and Arcadia .75.

At Seward, about 2.5 inches of rain fell and lightning struck a barn on the Ted Vogt farm, about five miles northwest of Seward. Although the barn burned to the ground, no persons or animals were hurt.

The Big Blue River at Crete remained within its banks despite heavy rains upstream.

3 Families Evacuated

Three families were forced to leave their homes at Pawnee

City as Turkey Creek overflowed its banks. They were the Victor Ramsey, Ray Porter and Albert Steiner families.

There was considerable flooding in lowland areas with many basements water-filled at Pawnee City.

Turkey Creek was also out of its banks southwest of Cook with several small bridges reported washed out. Lightning struck a corn crib on the Fred Dobber

Dairy Days King, Queen Named At Aurora Festivities

AURORA, Neb. (AP)—Jack Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Swanson of Aurora, and Miss Shirley Harp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harp of Hampton, were named June Dairy Days king and queen at Aurora. The two-day event was sponsored by the Aurora Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Harp will represent the Aurora Jaycee chapter in the contest at Kearney to select Miss Nebraska.

Nearly 3,000 persons were fed at a barbecue. Farm implement and dairy equipment and feed displays were set up around the court house square for two days.

Road Dispute Goes To Court

Lincoln Star Special

David City, Neb.—A dispute over construction of a township road northwest of Brainard was aired in Butler County District Court before Judge H. Emerson Kokjer. The hearing was on a petition for injunction to restrain the Oak Creek Township board and other individuals from constructing a road according to plans previously announced by them.

The plaintiffs were Joseph V. and Edith Havlovic. Named as defendants in the petition were the township board members, Anton Jelinek, Gabriel Dvorak, and Ernest E. Rezac, and the following individuals, Ernest E. Rezac, Anton Jelinek, Gabriel Dvorak, and Edward Davis.

Judge Kokjer listened to the testimony of witnesses and then granted the request for permission to file written briefs. The matter was taken under advisement by the court pending the receipt of these briefs.

Entertains For Guest

Mrs. Anna Osthoff of Los Angeles, Calif., who is spending several weeks in Lincoln visiting friends, was honored Wednesday evening when Mrs. R. L. Nichols entertained informally at her home. Assisting Mrs. Nichols as hostess was Mrs. Essie McClure, and the guest list included members of Mrs. Osthoff's former neighborhood club. A former resident of Lincoln, Mrs. Osthoff was accompanied here by her son-in-law and daughter, Col. and Mrs. William Bell. Following a short visit, the Bells returned to the west coast last week.

THIS IS what might be known as a finger-crossing week-end—We know numerous reasons for keeping one's fingers in a cross-wise position from now until Monday—and we know numerous people who are doing just that. We suspect that all of the week-end brides—and bridal parties—are taking protective measures against the weather—and we know of some Sunday activity that could be considerably dampened by any unhappy mood the weatherman might have—

BUT THERE are some things that can't be spoiled by a sudden downpour and among them is travel—
This morning Mrs. O. J. Fee and Miss May Bardwell plane off to Mexico City, where the two will be members of a Mexico Study Tour

—The study tour, we gather, includes classes and lectures at Mexico University, week-end excursions to Mexico's historic sites and cities, and continues for seven weeks.
AND leaving on Saturday will be Mrs. Earl V. Wiedman who goes to Washington D.C. where she will attend the Fifth Institute of Genealogical Research which is to be held from June 21 through July 9, at American University.

tioned that Mrs. Charles Stuart, president of the Lincoln Delta Gamma Alumnae Club, and Mrs. Duncan Sowles were leaving on Wednesday to attend the 36th biennial convention of the sorority which is to be held at Sun Valley, Ida. Now we discover that four members of the active chapter of Delta Gamma also are to attend the convention, and the group includes Miss Jane Bergquist, Miss Ann Beynon, Miss Colleen Farrell, and Miss Mary Domingo of Weeping Water.

Convention bound on Thursday were Mrs. Daie Ganz, district president of Kappa Alpha Theta; Mrs. Richard Garlinghouse, president of the sorority's Lincoln alumnae group, and Miss Judith Flansburg, president of the active chapter. Active chapter members attending the convention will include Miss Phyllis Colbert, Miss Cynthia Morgan, Miss Patricia Stafford and Miss Mary Jane Finney.

doesn't rain. And, of course, there is to be a picnic supper.
HEAR that Miss Sondra Bricker arrived home last Sunday from the University of Colorado at Boulder, where she has been attending school, to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bricker. Miss Bricker, whose engagement to Joseph Talper of Denver was announced several weeks ago, tells us that she has chosen Sunday, Aug. 29, as a wedding date.

A Guest Threesome

Arriving from Shell Beach, Calif., on Wednesday evening were Mrs. William Cochran

Former Lincoln Girl Is Bride

Word has been received in Lincoln of the marriage of Miss Jeannine Lois Wedell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carl Wedell of Great Bend, Kan., formerly of Lincoln, to Gerald Shadwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shadwick of Emporia, Kan., which took place Saturday evening, June 5, at the Congregational Church in Great Bend. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.
The bride has attended Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., and Kansas State College where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi, Phi Alpha Mu, scholastic honorary, and served as vice president of the senior class.

and the two young Cochranes, DeDe and Billy, who—with Mr. Cochran—are house guests at the home of Mrs. Cochran's father, E. W. Orme, and Mrs. Orme. The visitors also are the guests of Mr. Cochran's mother, Mrs. W. S. Cochran.

Mrs. Cochran will be remembered as the former Betty Orme, Pi Beta Phi at Nebraska, and a member of the Lincoln Junior League.

To Hear Talk

The June meeting of the Lincoln Inter-Club Council will be held Tuesday noon at the Chamber of Commerce.
During the luncheon-meeting, at which Miss Jeane Shankland, newly-elected president will preside, a talk on Lincoln's recreational facilities will be given by Mrs. Doris Pierce, director of women's and children's activities in city recreation department.

This institute is held in cooperation with the American Society of Genealogists, the Maryland Hall of Records, and the National Archives and Records service.

THE OTHER morning we men-

Three Is Not A Crowd

There may be people in the world who think that three is a crowd, but the three popular members of Lincoln's young set shown in the above picture, don't believe a word of it.

It seems that Miss Pam Davis (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Hall Davis; Miss Sue Healey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Healey, and Miss Barbara Phillips (right) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Phillips, are having plenty of fun discussing plans for camp. If the conversation is tinged with a bit of partisanship as to the matter of camp choices, that is as it should be since the plans involve two camps.

Miss Davis and Miss Healey, we are told, will leave soon for Holiday Camp at Walker, Minn., while Miss Phillips has chosen Camp Cheley, near Estes Park, Colo., for her summer holiday.

THE AMMONS—Mr. and Mrs. Robert—are keeping their fingers crossed for nice weather on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ammon have invited the 1953-54 Junior League provisionals and their husbands, and the Junior League officers and their husbands, to their cabin at South Bend. Party time is 3 o'clock, with swimming, surf-boarding and a few other choice events on the afternoon agenda—if it

Chi Omega Alumnae Meet

Mrs. C. C. Wiggams will be hostess to the members of the Chi Omega Alumnae Club at a pot luck picnic supper at her home, 1220 No. 37th, on Monday, June 21, at 6:30 o'clock. This is the group's last meeting of the year.

Honeymoon Echoes

The Hoovers—Mr. and Mrs. James V.—were married May 22, and went scotting off to Florida on a honeymoon. We're suggesting that perhaps Mrs. Hoover's circle of friends might take a lesson from the bride on how to catch a sailfish.

master that, while perhaps sailfish aren't too uncommon as a catch, the one Mrs. Hoover (the former Patricia Wright) brought in just off Haulover Harbor, Miami Beach, Fla., was 5 ft. 7 in. long and weighed 19 pounds.

Has Church Service

At a 2 o'clock ceremony which took place Thursday afternoon, June 3, Miss Elaine Osterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Osterman, became the bride of Kenneth Thayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Thayer, all of Denton.

The wedding took place at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Crete.

Preceding the service, which was read by the Rev. O. R. Heinitz, a prelude of organ music was presented by Mrs. Heinitz, who also played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Robinson of Colorado Springs, vocalist.

Costumed alike in net over taffeta were the matron of honor, Mrs. H. M. Austin of Douglas, in blue, and the bridesmaid, Miss Miriam Singer of Lincoln, frocked in yellow. Both carried cascades of daisies tinted to match their frocks and wore headbands of the flowers. Miss Susan Westland and Miss Nancy Austin were the flower girls.

The bride wore for her wedding a gown of white Chantilly-type lace over satin. Seed pearls patterned the lace of the long-sleeved bodice to frame the illusion yoke, and the wide skirt, which ended in a train, was formed by panels of the lace and satin. Her illusion veil was finger-tip length, and she carried a cascade of Talisman roses.

Serving as best man was Marvin Bush of Lincoln, and the ushers were Al Dunekacke of Lincoln, and Larry Osterman of Malcolim.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Upon returning from a wedding trip to the Ozarks, the couple will reside on a farm near Denton.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska, and a member of Pi Lambda Theta honorary, the bride also attended St. John's Lutheran College, Winfield, Kan. Mr. Thayer is a former student of the University of Nebraska and Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Sutton and their 19-year-old son, Nor, are among the newcomers to Lincoln, and their current address is 633 Eldon Drive where they hope to reside permanently. Although last year Nor attended Washburn University in Topeka, Kan., where the family lived, he may be persuaded to attend the University of Nebraska this year.

The Suttons originally are from Oak Park, Ill., but Mr. Sutton's position with a pharmaceutical firm has taken them all through the Midwest.

There's a welcome this morning for Capt. and Mrs. Merlin Rice, too—Capt. Rice and his family came to Lincoln from Salina, Kan., which isn't surprising since the Air Force officer is a pilot instructor at the Lincoln Air Force Base. Originally from Ohio, Capt. and Mrs. Rice met while attending Ohio State College where both were majoring in music.

The four young potential music majors are Dickie, 7; Jimmy, 6; Barbara Jo, two and a half, and Tommy, 18 months.

We also put out the welcome mat this morning for Capt. and Mrs. Paul Smith and their 7-

CVHS Alumni Reunion

Red China Officials Go To Britain

Clears Way For Full Diplomatic Relations

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons Thursday Communist China has assigned a charge d'affaires and diplomatic staff to Britain. Officials here said it cleared the way for a future exchange of ambassadors and full diplomatic relations.

Churchill's announcement followed a broadcast from Peiping radio saying the British and Red Chinese governments had agreed the Communists should send a charge d'affaires here who would have "the same position and duties as the British charge d'affaires in Peiping."

The move by Mao Tse-tung's government came more than four years after the British extended diplomatic recognition to the Chinese Reds. It was in response to a request by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden during the Geneva conference.

Ease Relations

British officials said the action would ease financial and trade relations with Red China. A short time after the announcement the Chinese-British trade committee, a private group, said a Chinese trade mission will visit Britain at the end of this month for a 10-day discussion of new and wider trade arrangements. The association is made up of five British organizations claiming to represent thousands of manufacturing companies, industries, importers and exporters.

Red China's action also makes it easier for Britain to support Peiping's claim to membership in the United Nations and the big power seat on the Security Council now held by Nationalist China. But British officials stressed no bargain had been made on the issue with Peiping.

ROCKY HOLMES BLOOD-SPLATTERED CROWN

Marciano Gains Unanimous Not Over Ez In No-Knockdown Brawl

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano, streaming blood from a cut around the left eye, raised goose-egg lumps on Ezzard Charles' swollen face Thursday night but couldn't knock down the courageous former champ while saving his world heavyweight title on a unanimous decision in 15 brutal rounds.

If ever there was any question about the ability of Charles to take bitter punishment and fight back gamely, it is vanished in the chill night air at Yankee Stadium. Time after time it seemed the 32-year-old Cincinnati Negro must sink to the canvas under the heavy bombs of the Champ.

Marciano threw enough leather at the ex-champ to keep the shoe factories in his home town of Brockton, Mass., busy for five years. Still at the end, Charles was on his feet, erect and willing to take more.

In the savage 15th, Marciano came out for a knockout but he couldn't dump battered Ezzard although he threw everything in the book from his left hook to his "Suzy Q" right. Charles grabbed and held, staggered and stumbled but remained upright.

It was the toughest fight in Marciano's string of 46 straight victories, with the possible exception of the first battle with Jersey Joe Walcott in Philadelphia in 1952.

No doubt about the final verdict remained among the throbbing crowd as announcer John Addie revealed the score cards of the three officials. Judge Artie Addala had it 9-5-1, Judge Harry Edward 8-6-1 and Referee Ruby Goldstein 8-5-2, all for Marciano. The Associated Press card was 10-4-1 for the champ.

Charles fought the "fight of his life" in the early rounds, driving home brilliant counter punches when Marciano floundered and missed. He drew blood from Rocky's nose in the very first round and opened the gash over his left eye in the fourth.

Every time Ezzard got a chance to score to that damaged eye, he took advantage of it. The cut leaked on and off through the rest of the bout, bothering Rocky who kept dabbing at the blood with his glove.

It was all Charles in the first four rounds until Marciano began to come on in the fifth with a series of left hooks to the head. He finished the attack with a punch after the bell, drawing a chorus of boos from the stands.

Again in the sixth, Marciano pounded it on and the lumps began to appear on Charles' face.

In the eighth Charles was sliced around the right eye and an egg-sized bump began to emerge on the left side of his face. Although he tried to fire back resolutely and did score effectively when The Rock missed, he was unable to avoid the Champ's heavy bombs the rest of the way.

Charles staggered on wobbly legs in the sixth from a terrific right and doubled up from a solid hook to the body, still he flurried back with four punches to Marciano's surprise.

By the time they got to the 13th, both men seemed tired and they tugged at close range until The Rock cut loose with another savage flurry.

Marciano was in fine spirits in the Yankee dressing room after it was all over.

"A right hand cut me," he said. "It bothered me for about three rounds. He hurt me about three times."

Asked if Charles was the most courageous man he ever faced, the Rock answered, "I think so."

In the early stages, Charles was every bit the master of Marciano that Joe Walcott had been—until he got knocked out. He even pushed off the Rock, tied him up inside, made him miss and countered beautifully.

At the end of four rounds, he looked like a sure fire winner.

Marciano seemed bewildered by the strange turn of affairs, blinking his eyes and frowning as the blood trickled down the side of his face.

Even after the sixth round barrage, Charles came back strongly and stung the champ with a right hand uppercut and his quick counters over Rocky's lumbering attack.

But in the end, it was the savage animal power of the Brockton strong boy of 29 that was too much for the veteran of 97 previous fights. Perhaps it would have been different if the lumps on Charles' face hadn't obscured his vision or if the cut on Rocky's eye hadn't bothered him.

Snarling Charles Asks For Rematch—'Sooner The Better'

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—His right eye bloodshot and half closed, his left cheekbone lumpy and lopsided, Ezzard Charles snarled defiance at Rocky Marciano and challenged his conqueror to another fight, "the sooner the better."

"Marciano is not the best fighter I ever fought," Charles said.

Although Charles insisted he wasn't hurt, the door to his dressing room was closed to reporters for 40 minutes after the fight. When the newsmen finally were permitted to see the beaten gladiator, it was almost impossible to interview him. At first Charles kept pointing to his throat and using sign language in answer to questions.

"He can't talk," explained Tom Tannas, Charles' co-manager. "Marciano hit him in the Adam's apple and it did something to his vocal chords."

Charles shook his head in agreement but finally, after much prodding managed to whisper:

"I was doing all right until he hit me in the throat. I think it was in the ninth round. I was doing all right until then."

The more Charles spoke the stronger his voice became, as if he forgot he wasn't supposed to be able to talk.

"I hurt him several times," he said, "especially early in the fight. I thought I had him in real trouble a couple of times, but I couldn't get him with the big punch. He was ducking down too low."

Although Marciano hit him with every punch in the book—without dropping him once—and had him floundering around, practically helpless, in the final round, the 32-year-old Cincinnati insisted he never was in serious condition.

"I was never in danger of being knocked out," he said. "I knew what was going on all the time. In fact, I came closer to knocking him out than he did me. Only I didn't take advantage."

"I know he was more tired than I was at the finish. I could hear him breathe."

"I thought I almost had him at the end. All through the fight, though, he kept coming back good. I nailed him hard three or four times, but he always came back. He's courageous, that guy."

"I was surprised the way he stood up to it. It was my toughest fight ever. You gotta rate that Charles with the top two or three heavyweights."

Rocky had a skin burn on his left chest, near the neck.

"That was when we landed simultaneous rights," he explained.

"I was never worried. His best punch was a right hand."

"Both a right and a left," said Rocky solemnly, and every one in the crowded, frantic dressing room let loose a big laugh.

And when did you think you had him?

"In the tenth I felt sure," said the Champion, and that came as a surprise, for it seemed to most observers as if the tide of battle had turned with the sixth.

"He's a tough guy, that Charles," said Rocky, and grinned. "He put up a good fight. I'm surprised he mixed it so. He's the most courageous fighter I ever met."

Andy Bush Racks Up 11th As Chiefs Grab 9-8 Win

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—Andy Bush, veteran Lincoln right hander, scored his 11th victory of the season Thursday night as the Chiefs took a Western League series opener from Pueblo, 9-8.

Bush, who has lost only twice, gave up 14 hits before he was relieved in the ninth but kept them well scattered.

Noel Quendo relieved Bush with one down in the ninth and got the side out after Pueblo scored its eighth run on George Anderson's fourth hit of the night. Anderson's single scored Frank Jeffers from third base, then Quendo struck out catcher Ewing Turner for the final out. Lincoln broke a 4-4 tie with four runs in the eighth inning, during which the Chiefs batted around although collecting only three hits. Bush scored what turned out to be the winning run in the ninth inning when he walked, moved to third on Johnny Jones' double and came home on a balk by Syl Zacher.

This is the seventh year in baseball for Frank Thomas, the Pirate slugger, and he's never played on a first division team... New wrinkle at Wrigley Field: Youngsters planking themselves down beside a vacant seat, then banging on it like a drum... Stirs up the Cubs, they say... The game the Chiefs needed most was that six-hitter dependable Roger Wright tossed against Denver the other night... Found, finally, an honest man. Says Tom Qualters, the Phillies' $50,000 bonus player on why he took the bonus and stayed in the majors as a bench-warmer rather than go through the minor ranks: "I might have been better off going to the minors for experience and a chance to pitch regularly, but I just couldn't pass up that money."

Slowest man in the majors is perhaps Rube Walker of the Dodgers, yet Rube holds the all-time Southern Association record for three stolen bases in one inning... Add chops with a good outlook on life: Jolly Joe Silverman, the old referee, and Curly Hersherberger, the delux baseball fan... Their word is always keen... Why is Enos Slaughter known as baseball's most ferocious competitor? Take for example his reply when a New York writer asked him to recall some of the great plays he had made: "I didn't make any plays I shouldn't have made."

Says Preacher Franklin, former Husker coach on his job as gridmaster at Kearney College: "I like the setup here so much I could stay here the rest of my life..." Among rights we'd like to see: Vic Raschi, the great money pitcher, facing his old Yankee pitches in the World Series... Chazy Dressen's $40,000 contract with Oakland of the Pacific Coast League is strictly verbal—no paper involved... This makes him the most trusting skipper in the little old game of baseball... Ans—Sibby Sisti, who bats right-handed only, is the only non-switcher named above.

Promoter Adam Krieger is still burning up the wires to find a suitable opponent for Gorgeous George at the fairgrounds, June 29... The Gorgeous One has written Adam: "I don't want to fight just any old pro-wrestling wrestler. I want to meet what I deserve—the best." Mike DiBiase, the ex-Cornhusker baller, has put in his application for a crack at the running mate, Ambrose Alexander, in New York for the Marek and Charles fight and a peek at Brooklyn's series, with Milwaukee.

Santee Out Of AAU Meet Tonight

Shelton Points At 7-Foot High Jump

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Southern California's Ernie Shelton says he expects to add the elusive seven-foot high jump mark tonight to the track and field barriers cracked this year.

He will be among more than 400 of the nation's best scheduled to take part in the National AAU Track and Field Championships tonight and Saturday night at the St. Louis Public School Stadium.

Only three defending champions will be missing.

The six-foot-two Shelton thinks he has a good chance to join British miler Roger Bannister and Shotputter Parry O'Brien in achieving a mark that has withstood assaults down through the years.

"If conditions are right, I think I can do it here," Shelton said. "If conditions are not right, I think I will do it sometime this year."

Within the past week Shelton has cleared the bar at 6 feet 10 1/4 inches and 6 feet 10 1/2 inches, barely touching the bar on his efforts at the seven-foot mark.

O'Brien, the 225-pound representative of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, also will be in action tonight, trying to exceed the record 60 foot, 10-inch mark he set with the 16-pound shot in the district AAU meet at Los Angeles a week ago.

The 1952 Olympic champion set the accepted world record of 59-2 1/4 and several times this year has passed the 60-foot mark that had gone untouched until he came along.

Optimists Feted; Play Dugdales Tonight

By KON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Member

The Lincoln Optimist Club Thursday treated its Legion baseball team, undefeated after five games, to a noon luncheon at the Cornhusker Hotel and announced plans for a game between the Legion team and a team made up of club members.

The Optimists will play Offutt Field Saturday, June 26, at Sherman Field, for six innings. For the last three innings, Optimist Club members will take over and oppose the Legion nine.

The Optimists also announced a special ticket offer for baseball fans.

Patrons will be admitted to games of June 18, June 22, June 29 and July 1, all at Sherman Field, for half price plus the coupon which appears on Page 15 of today's Star. Regular admission is 50 cents.

Thursday night's game at Grand Island was rained out and will be played Sunday at 8 p.m.

Friday the Optimists host Omaha Dugdales.

Game time for the Dugdales tilt at Sherman Field is 8 p.m. The Dugdales, representing Omaha Benson in the Gate City's American League, figure to be the toughest opponent on the Lincoln schedule so far.

The Optimist team is made up largely of Lincoln High players who battled Benson to a 13-inning, 2-2 deadlock during the prep season.

Benson Coach Scotty Orcutt is running Dugdales and many of his Bunny players will be on hand for tonight's game.

Ladies Intra-City Tourney Due Today

Bobo Heads For Reno To End Cinderella Marriage

She'll Get $6 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—Barbara Sears (Bobo) Rockefeller was on her way to Reno Thursday to end her six-year Cinderella marriage to multi-millionaire Winthrop Rockefeller.

In great secrecy, she boarded a train and left to establish the six weeks' residence required for a Nevada divorce.

It's costing the scion of one of America's great fortunes six millions dollars to shed the 37-year-old blonde daughter of an immigrant coal miner from Lithuania.

Rockefeller is also due in Reno shortly from his home in Arkansas to sign the financial agreement and a separation stipulation that will pave the way for the divorce. However, he will not stay around for the actual divorce.

During a brief stopover in Chicago, Bobo told reporters:

"Both my husband and I are traveling to Reno in the primary interest of our son, Winthrop Paul, in order to complete arrangements concerning our separation and property settlement."

She would answer no further questions.

The couple's 5-year-old son was left behind with close friends of Bobo's in the New York area.

The Rockefellers could not arrange a New York divorce, since the only grounds here are adultery.

The couple came to financial terms last Jan. 8 and, since then, details of the settlement have been ironed out. After four years of bitter wrangling, Bobo gets $1 1/2 million dollars plus a half million dollar trust fund.

Visiting Rights
She retains custody of their son, but Rockefeller gets visiting rights.

Bobo's first husband was Richard Sears Jr., a well-to-do Bostonian. After their divorce, Rockefeller found her in a humble flat overlooking the Third Avenue elevated here.

It was the first marriage for the 42-year-old Rockefeller when he made Bobo his bride in Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 14, 1948. Less than two years after the Valentine's Day ceremony, the couple broke up.

Rockefeller is a grandson of the fabulous old oil tycoon, the late John D. Rockefeller.

Dr. IQ Divorced

ALTON, Ill. (AP)—The wife of James W. McClain Jr., appearing as "Dr. IQ" in a New York television show, was granted a divorce here. Mrs. Doris J. McClain, who charged cruelty, was awarded custody of their four children. He was directed by the court to pay Mrs. McClain $400 a month alimony plus $50 for each child.

Former Lincolnite Takes Own Life In Vienna, Austria

Robert A. Schaufelberger, 31, formerly of Lincoln, took his life by hanging in his Vienna apartment, the Associated Press reported. He was a civilian employee of the U. S. Forces in Austria.

The dispatch said Mr. Schaufelberger had been under treatment by a Vienna psychiatrist for despondency.

Born here, he attended Lincoln High School and the University of Nebraska.

After serving with the Army in Europe during World War II, he returned to the University of Nebraska and then took a job with the War Department.

Mr. Schaufelberger had been in Germany and Austria since 1949. He was in Lincoln last October on leave from his overseas job.

He was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church. The body will be brought to Lincoln for burial in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Schaufelberger, formerly of Lincoln, who have lived in Washington, D. C., the past year, and brothers, Donald and Gerald, both of Lincoln.

John Fox, 69, Dies; Retired Switchman

John C. Fox, 69, 1365 So. 35th, a Lincoln resident the past four years, died Thursday at his home.

A retired Union Pacific railroad switchman, he came to Lincoln from Hastings. He was born in Sterling.

Mr. Fox was a member of the Methodist Church and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Surviving Mr. Fox are his wife, Charlotte J.; daughters, Mrs. Wayne Daily of Grand Island and Mrs. C. T. McFarland of Lincoln; son, John C. Fox Jr., in the Navy at Long Beach; six grandchildren, a brother, Royal V. of Lincoln, and a sister, Mrs. Flora Mohnike of Sutton.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Wadlows, Dr. Frank Court officiating. Burial will be in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Lutheran Group OKs Birth Control

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The annual Augustana Lutheran conference Thursday took what its leaders believe is the unprecedented action of voting church approval to birth control.

There were no dissenting votes heard among the 515 delegates who represent a church membership of 499,640 in 34 states.

The report adopted by the convention had been two years in preparation. Action on it was deferred last year.

A spokesman for Augustana said it is the first Lutheran group in America to officially adopt a statement of "responsible parenthood" and he believed it the first church organization in this nation to take such action.

Rites For Mattoon Infant At Sidney

Elgin Union Okays Work Without Pact

Lincoln Star Special
ELGIN, Ill.—Elgin Watch Co. members of the American Watch Workers Union at Elgin, Ill., and Lincoln, Neb., have voted to continue work without a written contract with the company.

Walter W. Cenerazzo, Elgin, Ill., president of the AWWU, stated that Elgin Co. management has refused to extend the existing contract beyond Sunday night and has refused an offer to arbitrate the issue or to accept the services of the government Conciliation and Mediation Service, Washington, D.C.

Following an unsuccessful meeting of the union and management with the Mediation Service, Cenerazzo said, the executive committees of the Lincoln and Elgin unions met and unanimously voted to go to work Monday without a written contract and maintain the status quo condition of the open contract or until a new contract is negotiated.

The entire union membership, he said, has given the executive committee power to conduct a strike when it deems such action advisable, to extend the present contract for a short term or to continue work without a contract.

Elgin management, he said, has insisted on a new contract with a Dec. 1 re-opening date. That is a time when watch making is very slow and the unions then would be virtually without any financial ability to strike.

40 Delegates From 5 States Expected At Postal Workers District Convention

Some 40 delegates, from a five-state area, are expected for the District 8 biennial convention of the National Association of Post Office and General Services Maintenance Employees to be held Friday and Saturday at the Cornhusker Hotel.

John W. Richardson of Washington, D.C., national secretary-treasurer, met Thursday with the executive committee of the district, composing Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Minnesota.

Local 16 of Lincoln will be convention host with business sessions scheduled for Friday. Mayor Clark Jeary and Postmaster O. E. Jerner will welcome the group.

Post Office Inspector L. G. Moore of Lincoln will be principal speaker at the banquet scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday. Nomination and election of officers and delegates will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday.

D. L. Van Buskirk of St. Joseph, Mo., is district president, and Loretta R. Martin is president of Lincoln local and a district vice-president.

What They Do!

These high school youngsters come from Plainview, DeWitt, Valentine, Fremont, Wahoo, Sutton, Lincoln and many other Nebraska towns to participate in the Fine Arts Course. For two and a half weeks they study, practice and concentrate on music, drama or art. However, there are many organized activities that provide fun, too. The Sunday, June 20th, Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star will publish an illustrated feature of their many activities to show what they actually do.

If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Wheat Sales Drop; Oats Remain Firm

CHICAGO (AP)—All wheat futures except July slumped to new seasonal lows on the Board of Trade Thursday as the slow but persistent markdown in values continued.

Other cereals were pretty much able to ignore wheat's weakness. Oats again were quite firm with dealers active, responding to fears of some traders that the hot weather in the Midwest was causing some damage.

July soybeans rose several cents at one time but 100 1/2 gave up the gain before the close. Soybean meal was higher, while corn held steady in light demand.

Wheat closed 34-1/4 lower, corn 34-1/4 higher, soybeans 3-1/4 higher, soybean meal 1-1/4 higher and oats 10 cents lower to 8 cents a bushel.

There was nothing new in the wheat picture, which was the reason why the bread grain kept on going down.

End of the early bulge in July soybeans was based on reports from Iowa that the crop was better than expected, which must be expected by beans. But soybean meal's rally came to a halt, and the market dropped to 80 cents a bushel. Meal sold at $2.00 to $2.03 a ton, off 50 cents to 1.00.
